7. Place a few pieces of double-sided tape onto the oval frame where you would create the middle of the flower and attach the petal with leaves to the piece of double-sided tape to hold in place. Add each of the petals around the first petal to form the flower. Place a small piece of double-sided tape in the middle of the flower and attach the small circle.

9. Add a small piece of double-sided tape to behind each of the leaves to attach to the oval frame.

10. Add the oval with the flower to the card as desired using double-sided foam tape.

and pierce down into the piercing pad. Completely pierce the entire pattern or the portion of the stencil that you wish to pierce.

3. Before removing the low tack tape, ensure you have punched all of the holes by holding the design up to the light and you will quickly see if you missed any holes.

4. Ensure the entire design is pierced and then you may remove the stencil and repeat in the remaining corners as desired.

5. Take a doily and place the front side down.

6. Fold the top towards the bottom until the top half lies just above the circular edge (about 1 ¼” above the edge).

7. Crease the folded edge. Now fold the already folded edge on itself (to the front) so that there is about 1.5” from the opposite edge. This will create a triangular shaped folded doily to create the skirt of the dress. Fold over the tip of the triangle to create a flat area (this will attach to the bodice).

8. The bodice of the dress is created by placing a doily on top of white card stock in the area of the pattern that would look good for the bodice (assuming that the heart forms the top of the bodice). Die cut through both pieces and then glue the doily to the card stock. Trim the sides with scissors.

9. Attach the skirt to the bodice with tape at the back of the skirt with double-sided tape.

10. Place a small piece of ribbon from the around the waist area...so that the end pieces attach to the back (use double sided tape).

11. Curve the bodice card stock with scissors and then place a few foam tabs under this area. Place on top of the card where desired using the foam tabs for the top and double-sided tape for the skirt.

12. Decorate the dress by adding a bow to the waist and stick on pearls at the bodice.

13. Punch and emboss several mini flowers to the corners of the card that have no piercing if desired.
